

The image shows a horizontal band with a green background and light green stripes. Inside this band are three large, empty, rounded rectangular boxes. The first box on the left has a purple border, the middle box has a green border, and the third box on the right has an orange border. These boxes are intended for a customizable schedule.

The banner features a green and white striped background. On the left, there is a large white box with a yellow border. In the center, there is another large white box with a teal border. To the right of these boxes, there are three vertical brown bars of equal width, followed by a large pink rounded rectangle on the far right.
